NEW FACES NUMBERED AMONG GRAMMAR SCHOOL TEACHERS AS FALL SEMESTER OPENS SEPT. 13

The new teachers are numbered among the 51 so far engaged to teach in the Jefferson District Elementary Schools during the 1948-49 school year. Schools open on September 13.

James L. Snell, who will begin his first term as district superintendent next month, today released a list of the new teachers and a brief summary of their teaching qualifications.

A letter to the Daly City Record by Superintendent Snell introduced:

Ms. Aileen Haslett, a graduate of the University of Nevada, with more than four years' teaching experience. Mrs. Haslett, who holds a general secondary teaching certificate, taught last year in San Francisco schools. She will handle the third and fourth grade at Woodrow Wilson Elementary School.

Mrs. Ruth H. Rogers, Texas State College graduate, with years of teaching. Mrs. Rogers has taken graduate work at the University of California, taught at Tormillo, Texas schools, will occupy a low and high grade post at Woodrow Wilson.

John F. Ryan, a graduate of St. Philip's College at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, who took graduate work at Villanova. Ryan, who taught last year at Upper Lake, California, has six years' experience. He will handle high seventh and low eighth grade work at Woodrow Wilson.

Mrs. Elda H. Ackerman, a graduate of the University of Nevada, at the last half of her six years in the profession in Reno, Nevada schools. Mrs. Ackerman will teach low sixth grade work at Crocker.

Ms. Ellen G. Clark, a teacher with 14 years' experience, who has taught in San Francisco schools for the past two years. Mrs. Clark, graduate of San Francisco State College, took graduate work at the University of California.

WATER DEPT. GETS NEW PIPE MACHINE

The municipal water department was cutting and threading pipe, nipples and fittings in a rapid manner this week after installation of a new pipe-cutting machine at the Citrus st. water works, according to superintendent A. J. Bodien.

Procured at a cost of six hundred dollars, it is estimated that the machine will pay for itself in one year by enabling workers to fashion fittings out of scrap ends of pipe which heretofore have been wasted.

North County Leaders Meet Here Tonight To Discuss Cities Needs

Daly City will be host tonight (Thursday) at a dinner meeting of north county municipal officials at the Colma Cafe.

All San Mateo County cities from Millbrae north will be represented. The group meets every other month to discuss common problems—it last met two months ago at South San Francisco.

Topics for discussion will include improved north county ambulance service and county development of recreational facilities in northern San Mateo County.

Lions Hear Public Defender At Lunch

William Ferdon, assistant public defender for the City and County of San Francisco, was guest speaker yesterday at the Daly City-Colma Lions Club luncheon at Estrada's.

Outlining some of the outstanding cases handled through his office, Ferdon pointed out to the group the importance of public defenders as the "only source of encouragement for those who lack private counsel."

The speaker was introduced by Elio Fontana, program chairman.

CEILING ON TAXES

A study of the tax situation in San Francisco and the peninsula reveals some interesting observations.

For one thing, without exception the combined county and local city tax rates in San Mateo municipalities will be higher than the San Francisco combined rate for the fiscal year 1948-49.

For another, the tax rates for the Jefferson Elementary School District and the Jefferson Union High School are higher than the city tax rate in Daly City.

Here's where your money goes:

San Mateo County basic tax	$2.26
Jefferson School District special	.935
Jefferson School District Bonds	.5972
Jefferson High Maintenance	1.35
Jefferson High Bonds	.035
San Mateo Jr. College Maintenance	.3611
County Free Library	.0730

TOTAL TAXES COLLECTED BY COUNTY	$5.6113
DALY CITY TAX RATE	$1.242

COMBINED CITY AND COUNTY RATE $6.8533

Residents of surrounding unincorporated area, including Broadmoor and Garden Village, pay no taxes to Daly City. However, they are assessed for special districts—the Light, Sewer and Fire Districts, so that the total county tax rate paid by residents of northern unincorporated area is $6.2324.

The combined tax rate in San Francisco, including payments on a multi-million bond issue, is only $6.09.

Other cities in San Mateo county pay on an even higher basis. Menlo Park's combined city and county rate is $7.8775. Serranito pays $7.27. The north coastside section pays $8.13. San Mateo pays $7.27, plus city taxes. Palo Alto pays $7.4357. Millbrae $6.48, San Bruno $5.87 and South San Francisco $9.7—all of these plus city taxes.

These rates are paid on each hundred dollars assessed valuation of real property. The rates on personal property, insured and unsecured, vary slightly but are nevertheless of fantastic proportion.

Comparatively speaking, from a tax viewpoint, Daly City is therefore a good place to live.

But it would be a better place to live if, in return for a county tax rate of $5.6113 per hundred dollars of assessed valuation, the county of San Mateo would invest some of its collections in improvements in the northern end of the county.

Northern San Mateo county has no parks, no playgrounds, no hospitals and very little of anything else provided by the county government. Hard working citizens usually don't mind paying for necessary costs of government. But, in this case, they certainly have a right to ask, "WHAT DO WE GET FOR OUR MONEY?"

LAST DAY AT CAMP MATTRUP

REFERENDUM PETITION QUALIFIES -- NOW GOES TO COUNCIL DECISION

With only a few faulty signatures shown after a check against voting records, the 900 signature petition submitted last week in opposition to the annexation of "Westlake Annex" west of Daly City was certified to the city council by city clerk B. C. Ross on Wednesday. Approximately 640 signatures were required, but the petitioners had names to spare.

The matter will probably not be taken up until the first regular scheduled meeting of the city council on Monday, September 13. A large turnout of interested citizens is expected at the Council chambers that evening.

The petition was in opposition to Ordinance 279 which was adopted by the city council on July 26. The Ordinance is now temporarily suspended, and the council may either cancel the ordinance or submit the matter to a vote of the people at the November 2 general election. It is a foregone conclusion that the matter will be referred to a vote.

The annexation ordinance would have added approximately 432 acres to the city of Daly City, including that land west of Junipero Serra Blvd. between Lake Merced and San Francisco Golf courses, extending westerly to the Skyline boulevard. The land is under development by the Henry Doelger construction company, where it is planned to build thousands of new homes and apartments in the next two years.

Petition circulators declared themselves as not necessarily being against the annexation but as being in favor of ratification by a vote of the people. This was expressed by councilman M. D. Battye, in whose name the petition was submitted.

Gas Station Thief Takes Money, Shoes

The theft of some $6 in currency, a battery and a pair of shoes was reported to Daly City Police last Thursday by Joseph Arrigli, proprietor of the Mobile Gas Station, 6831 Mission street.

The theft apparently occurred Wednesday night. After investigation, police said the burglars had broken a back window of the service station office to gain entrance.

$1,700 Collected In D.C. Municipal Court During August, 1948

A total of $1,704.50, covering fines for both traffic and criminal offenses, was collected during the month of August by the office of William J. Sweeney, municipal court judge.

Of this amount, $1,322 was collected in traffic fines, and $382.50 in fines on criminal convictions.

Drive Launched To Abate Rubbish Dumping In County

Deputy sheriffs, highway patrolmen and county engineer's crews were given citation books this week and authorized to arrest all persons caught dumping rubbish or garbage along roads in unincorporated San Mateo County.

The distribution of citation books was in accordance with a drive being launched by six county offices to abate what Dr. Harold D. Chope, health director, termed a "serious health menace." The drive was launched last week at a meeting attended by representatives of the highway patrol, fire and health departments, and the sheriff's, county engineer's and district attorney's offices.

Spokesmen for the group said conviction of the rubbish dumping charge provides for a $500 fine and imprisonment up to six months.

Weeks To Quit D.A.'s Office

John A. Weeks, chief criminal investigator for the San Mateo County District Attorney's office, this week confirmed reports that he would retire October 1 to enter private practice.

Weeks told District Attorney Gilbert D. Ferrell of his intention to resign after the D. A. formally announced the appointment of Louis B. Dematteis as assistant district attorney.

Weeks said his decision to quit was a direct result of the appointment, which he had expected would be his. The assistant's job, left vacant recently by the death of Daniel E. Sullivan, is considered a gateway to the district attorney's post, which may be available if Ferrell resigns after his 70th birthday next June.

County Grand Jury To Be Impaneled

A new grand jury for San Mateo County will be impaneled within the next thirty days, Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton announced this week.

The county has been without a grand jury since March 31, 1947, after an attempt to require a hold-over system had failed. The judge disclosed, however, that the jury will be an all-new one, that the "hold-over" system of appointing experienced members to give continuity to the investigative body would not be effected.

Asked the purpose of his plans for a jury, Judge Cotton emphatically denied that his decision had anything to do with gambling. "I did not impanel a jury last spring," he said, "because of the primaries. Members of a grand jury were likely to have ideas on candidates."

Boy Struck Down By Car; Slightly Hurt

Seven-year-old Richard Ban, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Ban of 651 San Diego avenue, was released from Junipero Serra Hospital Wednesday after being treated for multiple cuts and bruises on his face and arms.

The boy was injured Tuesday night when struck down by a car at Mission street near Citrus avenue. Bernardo Canefia, 53, driver of the car, told police the boy had darted out in front of him as he was passing Citrus avenue.

HIGHWAY PATROL, AMERICAN LEGION REMIND MOTORISTS THAT OPENING OF SCHOOLS MEANS DRIVE SAFELY

"Back to school time is child safety time," the California Highway Patrol announced today as plans were released for a joint statewide campaign with 531 American Legion Posts and the Patrol appealing to motorists for more caution when children are about.

The Legion is one of several statewide organizations taking part in the month-by-month "Operation Safety" program now in action with each month having a separate theme. Interest in child welfare prompted the Legion to take September as its assignment.

"It's too late to be safe after you have hit a child," said Harry L. Foster, Department Commander of the Legion. "We urge motorists to watch for children at every crossing. Summer vacations are ending and children will be going back to school in every city and town and throughout the rural areas. Give them a brake."

Beach at Daly City? Belgian Pastor Asks

Somebody, possibly a war-time GI, has been spreading chamber of commerce propaganda for Daly City.

At least, that was the conclusion reached this week when a post card inquiry from Belgium was received at The Daly City Record offices.

The post card read: "Gentlemen, kindly send us, if possible, free vacation literature on your city, evening life and beach. Truly yours, Rev. Pastoor, Averbode, Belgium."

If you know anyone who was stationed at Averbode during the war, ask him about that beach business.

Four New Faces On Recreation Group

Four new faces, and possibly five, will be seen on the city Recreation Commission next week as a result of the city council's decision to replace each councilman on the commission with a citizen member.

Ed Cavagnaro, appointed by councilman E. J. Mooney, James Hinds, appointed by councilman Paul Green, James Snell, appointed by councilman Fred Bertetta and Joseph Sarto, appointed by Mayor A. J. Gaggero, are expected to be named at the next regular council session on September 13. Councilman M. D. Battye has not yet decided on his appointee.

Other members already on the commission will remain unchanged. They are Mrs. Ann Eason, Mrs. Maizie Boyle, Mrs. Violet Lagomarsino and R. L. Crane.

The council decided to replace themselves in order to develop a broader planning function on recreation problems and because of the pressure of other duties.

Civic Women Provide Treat For Scouts; Plan Whist Series

Ice cream cups for the girl scouts at Camp Matrup Day Camp in the Colma Hills were provided last Friday by the Women's Civic Club.

The club's first project was authorized Thursday, with a popular vote at the first fall meeting. Hostess for the day was Mrs. Rose Watson, of 526 Evergreen. Mrs. Dora Holmberg was co-hostess.

A highlight of the meeting was the showing by Mrs. Julia Byrne of picnic films taken at the club's annual affair in July. Mrs. Margaret Fields, president, conducted the business session.

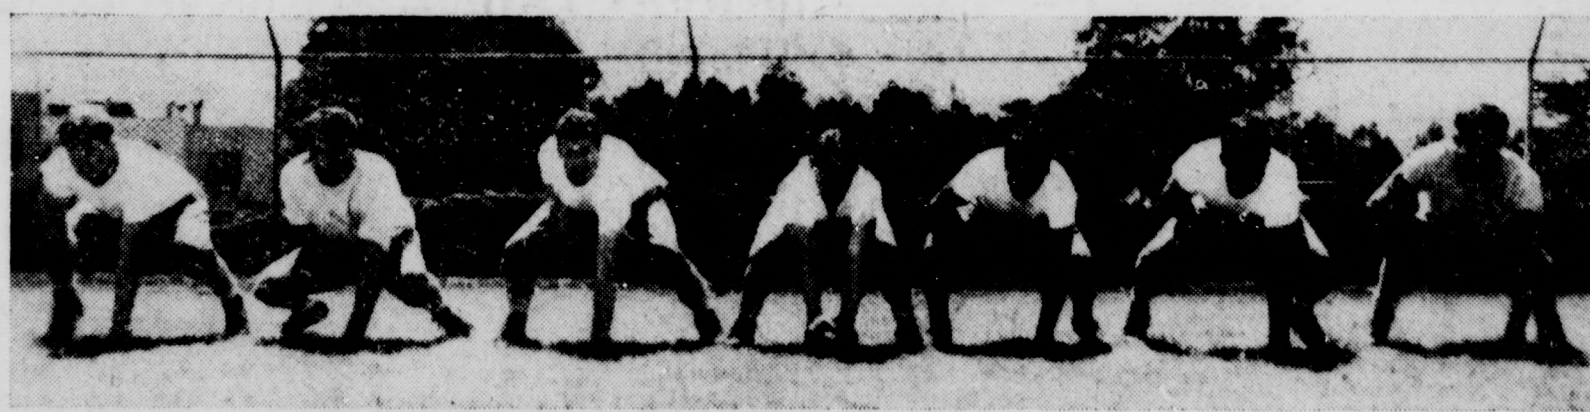

Mrs. Amelia Lewis' home, at 724 Bellevue avenue, will be the scene of the September 28 meeting.

LABOR DAY
This Labor Day will have strong political overtones. As workers march in their traditional parades politicians will be estimating the number of labor votes they can count on next November.

President Truman is scheduled to launch his campaign for election support on the basis of his opposition to the Taft-Hartly law.

Appearing with him on the platform in the motor city will be the U.A.W. leader Walter Reuther. This will inject more politics into the situation since it is reported that Reuther will launch a fourth party sometime late this winter.

There is said to be strong backing in the automobile union for such a move and as one million dollars may be spent in getting it started. This party would air to draw away large numbers from the Democratic ranks.

As far as the rank and file of labor are concerned it remains to be seen if they will follow their leaders — most of whom will back Truman. Individual workers are pretty independent. Even John L. Lewis found that he couldn't induce a majority of the coal miners to support his political views.

On this Labor Day the workers of America would do well not only to consider carefully the future leadership of the Nation but the leadership of their unions as well. There are some capable and conscientious labor chiefs but there are also many mediocre and downright bad ones. A correction of this situation would do more to benefit American labor than any one other thing.

THE KASENKINA CASE

If there was any doubt as to why Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina, the Russian schoolteacher, jumped from the window of the Russian Consulate in New York that doubt has been definitely cleared up by her own statement.

She has proved to us what has been proved many times before — that deliberate lies are an integral part of the Communist philosophy.

In view of this, it's hard to see how any promise from the Russians or any agreement with them can mean anything.

Corbetts Baseball Nine Wins At Funston

Playing under the banner of Corbett's Liquor in the Funston AA night league, the Junipero Serra Merchants nine beat out the Cooper-Varni baseball club Tuesday night by a score of 8 to 7.

Next week the locals play the San Francisco Police Department at Funston, on Wednesday night. The Police nine won the last encounter, nine to six.

Kids Promote Benefit For Timmy McInerney

Timmy McInerney, age 7, was taken away from his home on San Mateo avenue last week when he was stricken with polio while vacationing in Menlo Park. Timmy is now doing pretty well at San Francisco Hospital.

His little pals, headed by Gerry Lunghi, gathered flowers and sold them door to door in Timmy's neighborhood to raise money to buy a present for the boy. Then they arranged a show at the Petri home on Hillcrest drive, where Betty and Sue Scott, Honey, Michael and Patsy McGraw and Diane and Kay Petri will perform this afternoon in a benefit performance. Admission is fifteen cents. The money will go for a present to Timmy.

A guy's pals don't let him down.

Colma Boys Club Whips Lucky Lager In Tenth Inning

Winning their fourth consecutive ten-inning game, the Colma Boys Club senior baseball team nosed out the Lucky Lager tossers Sunday in the main feature at Marchbank Park by a score of two to one.

Parodi scored on Woll's double in the tenth to win the game, after centerfielder Don Lunghi had saved the day with a long throw to the plate in the eighth inning to cut off a Lucky runner who was headed for the winning tally.

Junipero Serras Lose To Tiburon By 7 to 6 Score

Trimmed by a 7 to 6 margin in a ten-inning game, the Junipero Serra Merchants baseball nine, formerly the Daly City Merchants, lost to a strong Tiburon team Sunday at Tiburon.

George Bournellis held the Tiburons scoreless until the eighth inning, when they squeezed in four runs to tie the score. The opponents scored three more in the tenth to clinch the victory.

The Juniperos gathered 13 hits to eight for Tiburon but were unable to bunch them. First baseman Babe Kasich hit four for four to win batting honors. Hank Dotoli, Ed Flynn and Larry Silvestri each collected two hits.

Veteran catcher Harry Krohn, with only one hit, managed to score two runs by virtue of reaching first base on a walk.

ROD AND GUN CLUB HAS SMALL TIME AS SKUNK JOINS PARTY

These two D.C. Rod and Gun Club nitwits, Jimmy Fox and George Archer, were at it again last week end when the club programmed a skunk hunt.

The Rod and Gun Club initiation team uses a stuffed skunk, with a built-in perfume sprayer and wire spring tail as its "sacred symbol." It's known as "The Mongoose," but the club needed a new one.

So, on a deer-hunting trek last week, when the boys came across unmistakable skunk signs, they decided to track the critter down.

Loaded with carrots and apples and chicken heads for bait, the skunk hunt was on. Every likely skunk spot was baited — then the boys went deer-hunting while waiting for results.

While skulking through the grass on the trail of a buck, Fox (Jimmy) came face to face with a polecat. He reached for his pistol as the skunk took aim and they both fired together. The skunk rolled over, dead. Fox just rolled over.

Hearing the shot, Archer ran to

We have been taken to task for inferring, in a recent column, that the famous Croffroth arena was located on Siskiyous avenue, between Mission street and San Jose avenue.

Actually, it was up on Acton street, which was probably called Siskiyous avenue in 1908 — up around Brunswick or Winchester. George Augustine, who leads school children safely across Mission street at Vista Grande avenue as a special policeman, threatened to put us in the pokey unless we identified the proper site.

Also, Ed Cavanaugh, ex-councilman and baseball bug, says Croffroth's memorable fights were held up on Acton street. Cavanaugh confesses that he was among those who started a cave in a vacant lot, tunneled under the street, and emerged under the Croffroth grandstand, a sure-fire route to a free admission. Now that the circus is in town, probably the ex-councilman could give the kids a few pointers on gate-crashing.

RIGHT SPIRIT

A fellow by the name of Joe Bocci, who lives on Cavour street, came rushing into the office the other afternoon just to make sure the recreation department's aquatic meet had been reported in the paper.

Joe says he has a natural affinity for the high school grounds. Fifty years ago he used to trap linnets there, and he's seen it from the time of the Union Course Park, through the vegetable garden days, until finally the high school was built. He's made his permanent home on its borders.

"We have one of the best all-around high schools in the country," says Joe, "and there aren't enough people who realize it."

He's all for the city's recreation program, run in conjunction with available high school facilities, and would like to see more kids take part in recreation events, with more grownups on hand to watch them in competitive sports and spur them on.

"Learning good sportsmanship through competition will make better Americans and, eventually, a better world," he stated. "When a kid learns to take a licking in boxing, or tennis, or anything else, and then comes back to win a couple of things himself, he's not likely to give up after the first couple of hard knocks in the outside world."

The man, of course, is right. And the recreation department, under Elman Rose, is doing a mighty fine job. And more people should take a hand in helping the kids to develop themselves.

WHAT THIS COUNTRY NEEDS IS A GOOD 5-CENT NICKEL

A four-year-old kid put us in our place the other day.

He came along and put the lug on us for a dime. Before delivering the ten cent piece we thought a little dissertation on the value of money was in order. So we explained the arduous tasks people went through twenty years ago, to get a nickel, and tried to explain that money didn't grow on trees. Also, that perhaps he should try to get by for a nickel, instead of asking for a dime.

"What can you get for a nickel, anyhow?" the juvenile retorted. We didn't have an answer for that one.

Crowd Expected At OLPH Dance Set For Next Saturday

"Dig out your jeans and let out the seams in your old plaid shirts," was the motto this week as parishioners prepared for the western dance at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church on Saturday, September 11. Admission will be seventy-five cents.

Bill Richardson and his seven-piece band will offer a variety of music for young and old, with a repertoire including everything from jumping jive to old-fashioned waltzes.

There will be surprises and prizes and lots of fun from 9 p. m. to 12:30, according to committee members Frank Denning, William Whalen, John Ferro and Richard Ennis.

Decorations and prizes will be handled by Mrs. Lee Miller, Mrs. Sue Hopman, Mrs. Valetta Ennis and Mrs. Isabelle Liberti; check room, Misses Leslie Linhares and Alvera Wilmes, and refreshments by Mrs. Janet Fellman.

The scene provided some Lifebuoy and aided in skinning the animal. Fox offered to carry the hide provided George provided his shirt in which to wrap it.

Mr. skunk is now at the taxidermist; two sets of clothes are airing on the clothesline and the showers are running at the Fox and Archer households.

Four-Man Police Force Planned For Millbrae

Provisions for a new, four-man police force for the city of Millbrae were made last Thursday by the city council and the three-man police commission.

Police commissioners were informed that approximately $20,000 had been allocated for law enforcement in the new budget, and were given the "go ahead" signal to form the new department.

Major R. F. Smith, police commissioner and retired army officer, volunteered his services at the police desk until the department is mobilized. The police force is expected to be ready for operation by October 1.

'Unseen Observer' Topic Of Sunday Sermon At Congregational Church

The Rev. Joseph H. Bennett, pastor of the Ocean View Congregational-Community Church, has invited all members of the community to attend a "reverent and restful" divine worship hour Sunday at 11 a. m.

Rev. Bennett will speak on "The Unseen Observer." Soloist will be George Cameron. A nursery for young children is provided during the worship hour.

Sunday School classes for all ages are held at 9:45 a. m.

Job Security For 3 Year Enlistees

Job protection for men without previous military service who volunteer for three-year enlistments in the U.S. Army or the U.S. Air Force is guaranteed by the same provisions applying to men inducted under the new Selective Service law. It was announced today by Sixth Army headquarters in San Francisco.

Reserve officers and Reserve enlisted men called to active duty are also fully protected under the reenlistment rights contained in the act. The law states that any man who makes application for reenlistment within 90 days after being released or honorably discharged from his military service shall be restored to his former civilian position at the same pay, and without loss of seniority or other benefits.

Further information may be obtained by phoning YU 6-1932 or VA 4-7186 or by a personal visit to the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting offices located at 428 Market street and 2399 Mission street.

LSM IN LUMBER TRADE

A converted Navy landing ship (LSM 205) has entered the coastwise lumber trade, successor to the steam schooners that monopolized this once prosperous field.

To equip the landing ship for its new job, the LSM bow was replaced with a standard type bow, all gun mounts were removed and some changes in superstructure were made to improve navigation.

Renamed "Rolando," the ship is expected to give a good account of herself in the shallow draft harbors of Oregon and California, where she will be able to slip over bars where ordinary ships cannot go. On her maiden voyage she carried 600,000 board feet of lumber from North Bend for various California ports.

The "Rolando" carries a crew of 16 men.

Enoch Richardson Republican Head

San Francisco — Appointment of Enoch L. Richardson, San Mateo, as chairman of the San Mateo County Dewey-Warren Campaign Committee, and opening of San Mateo headquarters in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel was announced today by Murray Draper, northern California Counties' Organization committee chairman for the ticket.

Just prior to his appointment Mr. Richardson entered Letterman General Hospital for an appendectomy and will not be in his headquarters office for a week or ten days.

"I am actively backing the Dewey-Warren ticket because we need the same national unity we had during the war and the only way we can get it is to put Dewey and Warren into the White House," Richardson said.

Mr., Mrs. Wright Honeymooning On Feather River

The newlywed William M. Wrights of Daly City were honeymooning on the Feather River this week after formal wedding rites last Sunday at the Little Chapel of Lakeside.

Wedding vows were pronounced by Dr. Harry C. Rogers, in the presence of many old friends who had attended the weddings of Doris' and William's parents. Some 300 guests delivered their felicitations at a wedding reception in the George Washington Temple. "I Love You Truly," and "Because," were sung before the ceremony by Cecil Cooper.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Robert Hahn, the bride was groomed in traditional white satin with a long train. Her cathedral-length veil was held in place with a beaded crown. Sprays of Vanda orchids appointed her bouquet of white roses and bouvardia.

A trio of attendants and two small flower girls, groomed in a harmony of pink, green and yellow, preceded Doris down the aisle. Mrs. Leslie Frost, the former El-dred Hahn, was matron-of-honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Hahn of Antioch, and Miss Sally Souders of San Francisco. Tiny Janet and Judith Brown scattered blossoms in the path of the wedding party.

The attendants' frocks were of simple design, complemented with salmon or pink begonia headpieces and muff appointments. The matron-of-honor wore green, and the bridesmaids, pink. Janet and Judith were groomed in yellow, with pink bouvardia headpieces.

Robert Wright of Richmond stood as best man for his brother, while Leslie Volkman and Robert Nava escorted guests to their seats.

Receiving at the evening reception, Mrs. Ethel Hahn, the bride's mother, wore black and rose accessories with her purple dress. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. George W. Wright, donned a navy blue ensemble with white complements.

Doris chose a burgundy suit and topcoat with gray purse and gloves for her going-away attire.

Both graduates of Jefferson district elementary schools and Jeff High, the young Wrights also are both employed by the telephone company in San Francisco. The former Doris Jean Hahn was graduated in 1944. Bill is an Army Air Corps veteran.

On returning from their honeymoon, they will make their home in Daly City.

Comics And Cartoons For Record Readers

Look through this week's Daly City Record and you'll notice a couple of newcomers to our columns.

To keep up with demands of readers, there are two comic strips, a crossword puzzle and two exclusive cartoon features. "Sunbyside" by Clark S. Haas and Len Kleis "Virgil" are the strip features, while "Did I Hear?" by Herman and Joe Mahoney's popular "Sport-scopes" round out the cartoon department.

You'll find them every week from now on in The Daly City Record.

ASTHMA

Don't let coughing, wheezing, recurring attacks of Bronchial Asthma ruin sleep and energy without trying MENDACO, which works thru the blood to reach bronchial tubes. Usually helps nature quickly remove thick, sticky mucus. Thus alleviates coughing and aids freer breathing and better sleep. Get MENDACO from druggist. Satisfactory or money back guaranteed.

Preparations Now Underway For Portola Welcome

San Mateo County's welcoming ceremonies for the Portola expedition which reaches the mid-Peninsula area on Friday, October 15, today received the official blessing of the Portola Trek Association through its special coordinator, Ray Hewitt of the California Mission Trails group.

Hewitt conferred with County Centennial Committee members at a meeting yesterday morning in the supervisor's chambers in Redwood City during which final plans for the five mile long procession thru the San Mateo-Burlingame area were presented by parade chairman, Norman J. Corlett.

Details of the local program, as outlined by Corlett, include the firing of giant aerial flares to announce the start of the parade from San Mateo Park at 6:30 p. m., October 15. The parade will be made up of colorfully garbed horsemen, bands, floats and marching units. It will wind its way thru the San Mateo business district along Third avenue to B. st., thence north along California Drive to Washington Park in Burlingame where the dignitaries of San Mateo county will extend greetings to the intrepid Spanish explorers. On its way to San Francisco, October 16, the procession will pass thru the center of Daly City.

The public school's participation in the parade is under the direction of a four man committee named by County School Superintendent Pansy Jewett Abbott last week. The committee was represented at yesterday's meeting by George White, Burlingame elementary school superintendent, who said that he and the other members of the school committee plan to meet with principals thru-out the county to determine the number of school bands and marching units available for the Portola parade.

Bunny Baffled By Butt Machine

By Bunny Atkinson

Somehow, new, convenient contraptions never cease to astound me. They're ingenious, sez I. Gad-get inventors are the smartest people in the world, just about.

You'll think so too when you see the new cigarette vending machine they just installed down at the Central Creamery. More exciting than the Moo'm pitches! It makes change (brains like Einstein!) and makes little clucking noises when it hands your cigarettes and matches and coins out to you.

You know those one-arm bandits that usually draw such attention in the lunch rush? They're backward symbols of a reactionary past, next to the bran' new smoke machine.

PLENTY OF SALT

Despite the fact that there is enough salt in the flatlands around the Great Salt Lake to supply the world's salt needs for thousands of years, most of the salt used in California is obtained by solar evaporation of Pacific Ocean water at plants located on the shores of San Francisco, Monterey, Newport and San Diego Bays.

Karl And Walt Kettler Work Hard At Relish

Karl and Walt Kettler, owners of the Relish Bakery, are working overtime these days keeping up with demands for their home-made ice cream. Made in a variety of flavors, the Kettler's ice cream contains four per cent more butter-fat than the average, Karl says.

Noted for their fine cakes and rolls, the bakery specialists also feature fountain service for the convenience of their customers.

Vet Subsistence Ceilings Listed

The majority of veterans attending colleges and universities full-time under the G-I Bill are able to work part time without reduction of their subsistence allowances, Veteran Administrator Robert P. Shields said today.

No reduction in subsistence will be made as long as income from productive labor and subsistence together do not exceed these monthly "ceilings" established by law last spring:

Veterans without dependents — $210; with one dependent, $270; with more than one, $290.

For full-time training in colleges or universities, a veteran may receive $75 subsistence if he has no dependents; $105 if he has one dependent, and $120 if he has more than one.

ROBINSON WANTS PORT OWNERSHIP BY CITY

SAN FRANCISCO — A Senate Interim Committee on Port Problems here heard Mayor Elmer E. Robinson declare San Francisco should have control of her state-owned and operated harbor, the city's "own front door."

Mayor Robinson claimed that because all other ports on San Francisco Bay are owned and operated by their municipalities, San Francisco should purchase from the state the wharves and other appurtenances of the waterfront. Then the city could launch a campaign to bring more business to the port.

As an alternative to returning the city's waterfront to municipal control, the Mayor suggested creation of a San Francisco Bay Port Authority patterned after the New York Port Authority, described here recently by Austin J. Tobin, executive director of the New York Authority.

East Bay port officials, however, opposed the Mayor's proposition, declaring they were "satisfied" with the state operation of San Francisco's facilities.

GENEVA MERCHANTS IN FUNSTON LEAGUE

The Geneva Merchants Baseball Club, which has competed with Jay Johnson's Daly City Boys' Club throwers, is joining the Funston Park night baseball league, according to manager Bill Fritz.

Games will be played during the week at the arc-lighted Funston playground, Bay and Laguna sts., during the week, Fritz said.

S.F. Voters To Decide

San Francisco voters will be given a chance next November to demonstrate their interest in "saving the redwoods."

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors has placed on the November 2 ballot a $250,000 bond issue to help buy Butano Forest for use as a state park. A previous proposal that the board include such a sum in the 1948-49 budget met vigorous opposition recently and it was decided to put the proposition up to the voters.

The forest, located in southern San Mateo county, is privately owned and unless it can be preserved as a park, logging operations will commence soon. The State Park Commission has already allocated $600,000 to purchase the tract and the amount must be met by matching funds from counties which would benefit from it.

Goings On At The Playgrounds

MARCHBANK PARK
By Glen Smith

On Monday, football made its appearance at Marchbank. Old shoulder pads, clothes, etc. made their appearance. We had to stop the tackle game and get them interested in touch tackle. There were about nine Frankie Alberts and one Canducci.

All decided that they were too broke to go to the concessions. We decided to hike to Thornton Beach next week.

The boxers have been working out in the sun. You will notice those fighters from Marchbank as those with the tans.

LINCOLN PLAYGROUND

By Jack Roof

Last Friday a group of fourteen people went with the playground director and spent the day at the concessions at Playland on the beach. Each person brought his own lunch and ate it on the sandy beach. Those who went were Dorel Hutchinson, Richard Gensel, Richard Rusting, Bob Murphy, Bob Rich, Ray Bernudez, Bob Knoll, Elaine and Jeanette Ortiz, Mrs. Santiago and her children, Mari- anne, Rosalie, Tony and Dennis.

CROCKER PLAYGROUND

By Ralph Capps

Last week being crafts week, most of Crocker Playground's steady customers spent a lot of time at the craft center on Peoria street. Sandra Faulk, Patsy Phillips and many of the others brought some fine wood burning and painted molds for their playmates to see.

On days when the craft center was open, the younger people painted, drew or played quiet games while the teen-agers spent most of their time playing paddle tennis, basketball and softball.

There was quite a turnout from Crocker to see the craft show on Wednesday night, and not one was even slightly disappointed. Besides the fine craft exhibit we enjoyed community singing, and excellent stage show, and the final chapter of the suspense-filled serial.

Our outing this week took us to Playland on Friday and it was very enjoyable. With perfect weather and reduced rates, how could we miss? We sat on the beach and ate lunch; then rode on concessions as long as the tickets held out; and finally entered the Fun House where we got our biggest 14-cents worth.

RAFT CENTERS

By James Kraywinkel and Elizabeth Kabary

As you all probably know by now, the second annual craft and hobby show and demonstration was held last Wednesday night. We hope everyone enjoyed the show as much as we enjoyed getting it ready.

All the youngsters were very cooperative in leaving their work to be shown at the exhibit. The work on display was from all age levels and from both craft centers. The youngsters demonstrating the work represented the ages from five to over 13 — the older girls are reluctant about having their ages revealed!

The following youngsters were demonstrating their craft Wednesday evening: Nancy Redford, James Jostumske, Billy Fairchild, Charlene Taylor, Cheryl Taylor, Buddy Taylor, Bruce Robbins, Anita Robbins, Roger Lorenz, Diane Furger, Roberta Furger, John Madden, Angela Squeri, Waldo Benonides, Ross Benonides, Cecelia Sullivan, Donald North, Ralph North, Robert Walker, Johnny Nagel, LaVerne Nagel, Anne Nolan, Elinor Korhumel, John Sisor, James Sisor, Billy Eling, Beverly DeNiki, Joy Beecher, Barbara Saumer, Hope Vilasquez, Jackie Martinez, Pauline Lugliani, Marlene Harris and Ruoth Fresenborg. Floretta and Lenita Johnson distributed printed programs at the entrance.

The craft show was followed by a drama, several musical numbers, community singing and the last episode of the summer picture show.

We consider the craft centers to have been very successful this summer. We have enjoyed working with the youngsters and hope they have picked up a few pointers on "what to do on a rainy day." That has been our goal.

Remember the craft center will be open until Friday, September 3, so if any youngsters have any articles left from the exhibits, don't forget to come in and pick them up before that date.

JEFFERSON PLAYGROUND
By Joyce Brown

The close of the summer season is almost here. Activities at Jefferson Playground will cease on Friday. The youngsters of Daly City have many fine memories to carry with them until next summer.

Among the memories may be the trip to the beach and zoo, or the day spent riding the concessions at Playland, then there was the trip through Golden Gate Park featured by donkey and merry-go-round rides. At the top of their list may be the wiener roast held at Marchbank Park on a beautiful summer day. All in all it has been a very eventful season.

The last outing for the children will include roller skating at Skateland, a picnic lunch on the beach and a view of the curio shop in the Cliff House.

The craft show was followed by a drama, several musical numbers, community singing and the last episode of the summer picture show.

MRS. LEFEBVRE BETTER

Mrs. Earl Lefebvre, one of the co-owners of the Twin Cleaners, returned to her home at 233 Sagamore street this week after a siege of illness and hospitalization. Announcing that she will be back at work in the cleaning shop in a few months, Mrs. Lefebvre extended her thanks to local friends for their attentions during her illness.

Dem. Campaign Gets Started Here; Committee Formed

Preliminary plans for the Truman-Barkley campaign in the vicinity of Daly City were made last week with the organization of a campaign office here.

Calling themselves the "Truman-Barkley Daly City Club," the local Democrat group elected George Naylor to the chairman- ship. Naylor, who resides at 886 Bellevue avenue, is a veteran of World War II.

Other club executives chosen for organization work were George W. Sims, local labor leader, and Humberto Rodriguez, war veteran.

Spokesmen for the club said their first campaign objective will be to combat a G. O. P.-proposed federal sales tax and to "expose" the high cost of living. Action also is expected to be taken on the housing problem.

Ralph Capps Takes Office At Legion Installation

Ralph G. Capps, 23-year-old veteran of World War II, took over the reins of Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion last Thursday at the organization's first meeting of 1948-49.

Capps succeeded James O'Halloran to the executive post, becoming the youngest president ever to serve the local group. Installation ceremonies were conducted by the ritual team of the 40 and 8, Frank Gomez presiding. Service marches were played during the rites by Miss Verna Moresco.

The young San Francisco State student, who served in the U. S. Navy for 36 months during the war, joined the American Legion in 1946. Calling for more active participation by veterans of World War II, Capps said, "It shall be our purpose to improve our policies in such a way that will attract a greater number of young veterans."

Other elected officers seated last week were Peter Bordson, first vice-president; Eugene Lowery, second vice-president; Clayton Kollmann, adjutant; Ed Triet, chaplain, and Martin Pahlka, sergeant-at-arms. Felix Foreman, veteran of World War I, accepted the post of finance officer for the 18th consecutive year.

Work was started last weekend on a new clubhouse in the rear of the Legion Hall at 474 San Diego avenue. A small locker room adjoining the meeting hall had been torn down for the purpose.

Fourth Child Born To Roy Beechers

This week's candidate for the "proudest man in town" is Sergeant Roy J. Beecher, strong man of the local bastille, who has added another small limb to his family tree.

Object of her parents' pride is Ruth Lee Beecher, who weighed in at six pounds, 12 ounces on August 17 and who has since gained a whole pound. Joy, Judy and Roy, jr., are puffed up about it too, to say nothing of Auntie Ruth Larson, for whom the young one was named.

Mother and baby are home now from Stanford University Hospital.

San Carlos Man Heads County's Third Party

William Dugan, San Carlos business man, was elected chairman of the San Mateo County Independent Progressive Party last week at a reorganization meeting.

Dugan succeeded Robert Burns to the executive post of the Third Party. Other new officers are:

Arthur W. Christman, vice-president; Mary Julian, treasurer; Phil Gillette, secretary, and Robert Berkeley and Charles Brown, board members-at-large.

Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho, vice-presidential candidate on the Progressive party ticket, will speak September 12 at a meeting in Redwood City.

COLMA BOYS CLUB AT PALO ALTO SUNDAY

Veterans at the Palo Alto Veterans Hospital will see a lot of baseball Sunday when the Colma Boys' Club senior team tangles with an Armet nine on the Palo Alto field at 1:30 p. m.

The Colma team has played four consecutive ten-inning games in a row, winning three of them and tying one. They figure to come out on top again Sunday.

Ray Ottoneilli or Don Mossi will draw the mound assignment for the locals.

Art, Craft, Drama Show Last Week At High School

A roundup of arts and crafts, drama and dance and music activities carried on during the recreation department's summer program was held last week for parents of the children attending.

Jefferson high auditorium was filled almost to capacity for the evening program which followed a working demonstration of craft work in the cafeteria. Splatter painting, pyrocraft, woodburning, leather and plastic work, clay molding and crepe paper work were among the activities portrayed at work tables in the cafeteria. An exhibit of practical decoration—crafts such as picture framing and felt work, was available for inspection. James Kraywinkel and Mrs. Beth Kabery, crafts instructors, and Miss Kathleen Schreiber were in charge of the session.

The stage show and variety program in the auditorium featured dances and musical numbers, as well as drama and films. Starting off with a community sing film, the hour-long program included a playlet, "The Prince of the Flowers," written and directed by Joseph Ballarin; a series of folk dances by the department's folk dancing group; individual dance and music presentations, and the final episode of "The Adventures of the Flying Cadets."

State Sales Tax Goes To Support Of Public Schools, Reilly Says

Some boy or girl in California today is developing a better trained mind and body because of the pennies you have paid as your share of the State's sales and use taxes.

This was reflected today in a report by George R. Reilly, First District member of the State Board of Equalization.

The state sales tax—two and one-half per cent on most retail purchases—is now the largest single source of income available to the State government, and because the cost of supporting the free public school system is the State's first general fund obligation, it may well be called a school tax, Reilly said.

Adopted in 1933, the sales and use taxes have resulted in income to the state which exceeded one and one-half billion dollars by April 1, 1948.

Collected by the Board of Equalization, administrative costs average less than two per cent of the total.

Copy Writing Course Offered By Ad Men

Golden Gate College in cooperation with the San Francisco Advertising Club has announced that Foote, Cone and Belding will present an evening course in advanced copy writing in its School of Advertising this fall.

Beginning September 20, the class will meet from 7 to 9:10 p. m. on Monday evenings, at 537 Market street, Robert Beaumont, account executive, will direct the course, assisted by Don Belding, chairman of the board of Foote, Cone and Belding; Leslie G. Mosely, manager of the San Francisco office; James North and Link Malmquist, agency vice presidents, and John J. Mess-

O.L.P.H. Mothers To Start Year With Whist Party

Past presidents and new members of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mothers Club will be honored September 11 when the parents' organization resumes activities for another year.

Mrs. Valetta Ennis, recently inaugurated president, will conduct the meeting which is to be followed by a social hour. Mrs. Esther Nolan, hospitality chairman, will be assisted by a committee of "graduated" mothers.

A pre-schedule social function being planned this week by the Mothers Club is a dessert whist party next Tuesday afternoon, September 7. The affair will be the first in a year-long series held each first Tuesday of the month in the school auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue.

According to Mrs. Catherine Bradley, refreshment chairman, home made cake and coffee will be served before the whist session. Mrs. Margaret Schreiber, game chairman, will be assisted by a committee of eighth-grade mothers.

175 Register For Selective Service At Jefferson High

Registrants were appearing in a steady flow at the Jefferson High school gymnasium today in the nation's second Selective Service program of the decade.

Eighteen men, age 24, had registered for the draft by 9 a. m. this morning, bringing to 175 the total registrants so far this week. John Kittrell, 25-year-old veteran of World War II, was first to appear Monday morning when registration began at the high school. Totals for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were 55, 74 and 34, respectively.

According to Stanford Hannah, Selective Service director for Daly City, numerous veterans have gone to much trouble to secure their discharge papers for presentation at the registration desk. The certificates are not necessary, he said, as long as the registrant can provide his serial number, date of entry into the service and date of discharge.

Mrs. Marjorie Reandeau, one of the four chief registrars for this vicinity, announced today that men may register on days not assigned to their age groups if necessary. September 17 and 18, the days assigned to 18-year-olds, are expected to bring crowds to the registration desks. Mrs. Reandeau said early registration of 18- and 19-year-olds would greatly offset congestion during the last two days.

The local registration office will be closed Sunday and Labor Day, but will remain open Tuesday through Saturday next week and Monday through Saturday the following week. Office hours are 8 a. m. - 5 p. m.

SPEEDING

Motorists are not killed by speeding in itself, points out National Automobile Club. They are usually killed by the sudden stop. A car traveling at 60 miles per hour strikes with the same impact as it would if it were dropped from the top of a nine-story building.

Registrations are now being accepted at the College offices, at 200 Golden Gate avenue, and 537 Market street.

Wednesday Boxing Matches Pleading To Ringsiders

People who forgot to show up at the recreation department's free boxing show at the high school gym Wednesday night missed one of the best fistic cards of the season. A crowd of approximately 400 bout fans were kept on their toes during 16 well-matched fights arranged by recreation director Elmer Rose.

The main event between Buster Sherriff of Jeff High and John Benavente was a humdinger, with Benavente gaining a split decision by a whisker. It could have been called a draw, as both boys dished out plenty of punishment, in the 150 pound class.

Jefferson's Mickey Leach took the nod over Rich Hennig of St. James high in a 145 pound slugfest in which the contestants were throwing right hands for keeps.

Fighting on the same ground where immortal pugilists like Joe Gans and Jimmy Brit fought forty years ago, the youngsters, ranging from 75 to 150 pounds, showed that Americans haven't forgotten how to use their dukes.

The results: Dan Rasmussen d. Joe Lewkowicz, 75, both Woodrow Wilson; Ken Klees, Woodrow d. Ken Cunningham, Crocker, 80; Don Magnuson d. Dale Long, 80, both from Crocker; Dick Kalinen, Crocker, d. John Roach, Sunnyside school, 85; Dave Rasmussen, Woodrow, d. B. McDonald, Jefferson, 85; Rich Duncan d. Jim Giblin, 90; Ray Rosa, Parochial, d. Roy Giblin, 95; Don Espinoza tko. Lefty Good-nolves, 105; W. Huntsman tko. R. McDonald, Jeff, 110; Bill Lyman, JUHS d. Tony Baptista, St. Ignace, 115; D. Travaskis tko. Ed Kaiser, Jeff, 120; Doug Norris, Woodrow, d. Dick Tooke, JUHS, 130; Bob Gallagher, JUHS d. Ben Stern, 135; Manuel Gomez, Balboa, d. Marlin Williams, OLPH, 140.

In the 140 pound class Bob Gallagher, JUHS freshman, showed promise of developing into a real leather artist. Little Dick Kalinen, an 85 pound atom, knew a few tricks, too.

Ed Cassilago handled the referee's job, while policeman Art Linares and councilman Paul Green acted as judges. Mayor A. J. Gaggero was timekeeper.

Clifford Cahill On Point Barrow Voyage

Clifford J. Cahill, USN, son of Mrs. James Cahill of Vincent, Ed and husband of Mrs. Anna D. Cahill of 500 Vista Grande avenue, Daly City, is serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Skagit, participating in the Navy's Annual Resupply Expedition to Point Barrow, northernmost tip of Alaska.

Five attack cargo ships, two landing ship tanks and an ice-breaker comprise the expedition which is delivering 37,000 tons of cargo ranging from paper clips to giant cranes—a full year's supply for the workers of the scattered camps of Naval Petroleum Reserve No. 4, a 35,000-square-mile area lying well within the Arctic Circle.

In the vicinity of Point Barrow, the Arctic Sea is a solid mass of ice for all but a short and uncertain period in mid-summer, when the ice recedes to form a hazardous channel along the coast. With the help of shore-based reconnaissance planes, the expedition is scheduled to thread this channel in mid-August, unload its entire cargo in less than a week, and return to the safety of the open sea. The task of unloading must be accomplished by the ship's crew working around the clock, aided by the Arctic midnight sun.

GOOD JUDGMENT

Drivers who use good judgment on the highway seldom have need to explain their conduct to the judge, points out the California State Automobile Association.

Recreation Dept. Closes Summer Program Tomorrow

Tomorrow, September 3, will mark the closing of the 1948 summer recreation program which, according to records kept by playground directors, provided recreation for 1005 children daily throughout its duration.

Total attendance at the city's playgrounds during the recreation department's expansive summer program was 58,322, as of last Friday. Tomorrow, the season closes on a round of outing, tournaments and special talent events never before equalled here in volume or variety.

With schools opening shortly for the fall term, lessening recreation requirements during daytime hours, two of the five playgrounds, Jefferson Elementary and Crocker, are scheduled to close. The other playgrounds will remain open for supervised play after school and on Saturdays—all except the high school grounds, which are reserved for competition on weekends.

Details of the fall recreation program will be published in a later edition.

Silvestri and Hansen In Green Hills Play

Bob Silvestri, the hard luck man of local amateur golf circles, finally copped himself a title Sunday by winning the invitational tournament at Green Hills country club by touring the course twice for cards of 65-73-138, two over par.

Silvestri has been runner-up in the S. F. city title race three years in a row.

The former Jefferson high star romped in ahead of another Daly City golfer, Einar Hansen, who carded 146.
